

What are the difference between being famous and being a hero?

Extension:
Design a commemorative stamp

Presentation

Living Museum oral presentation of your character

Is Shrek a hero?

This unit will help students to understand that:

- individuals do and should make a difference
- role models help us to reflect on the qualities and actions we want to exhibit
- people's actions are influenced by time and place
- individuals are influenced by the groups and institutions around them
- our perception of people vary with time, information and world view